were called before the committee and I think the work was done. I don't see--unless, if this looks like it might be just an attempt to kill it and if so, state it.

SENATOR KENNEDY: I again would say as introducer of the bill that from the letters and notices that I've received that there would be a lot more input than the people involved and I do appreciate the amount of work that's been done but I think the bill could be worked on, probably here on the floor but there was a request by different people involved and I felt as introducer that it should be my privilege if I cared to. I know there's been a lot of work done beforehand, there's been a lot of work done since, but I think it is quite an involved operation so I would request that it be returned to the committee.

SPEAKER: Are there any objections to unbracketing the bill? If not, the bill is unbracketed. Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well now, let me ask Senator Kennedy: Let's presume the committee takes it back and reconsiders, reports it out, which it would be my guess it might do.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Well, then again, this would be the wisdom of the committee and I would probably have to go to the floor with that if that would be the desire but I think there will be quite a little input from outstate on this as well as local people that have already worked on it so I only was doing what I thought would bring out a better bill.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Well, I have no objection to returning it to committee; of course, but
